ist of Questions for the Benefit of senate Committee Which Will

H. M. Wilson, a civil engineer of considrable experience in the west, has arrived in Montana to engage in a preliminary investigation, under the direction of the United States geological survey, Major Powell officer in charge, of the question of irrigation for the reciamation of arid lands. The entire work is under the immediate control of Capt. Dutton, who has established a process of the control of Capt. Dutton, who has established a process of the column for both teams was filled up to before the third inning. Cronin, the Marysville twister, did not pitch as strong a game as he did against Butte. He was freely batted, but it so happened that Helana knocked the ball into some fielder's hands every time. The game lacked interest, as it was evident Marysville would win, and many left the grounds before it where in Colorado.

Mr. Wilson's intention is to make a prediminary visit himself to the upper Madison, Jefferson and Ruby rivers, in order to be able to set a field party at work to the be able to set a field party at work to the best advantage. It is designed to confine observations at present to the more important streams and to the sections of country nost thickly settled, where, naturally, the need of irrigation most exists. The in structions under which the work will be Motors? prosecuted are to ascertain, first, the "duty" of water in this territory, or, in other words, to learn how much water is required to irrigate an acre of land. In different soils and under different climatic conditions this varies materially, and as a basis tions this varies materially. for computation is in Recessary that the facts should be established as to Montana, That having been done, the engineer will seek to learn whether it is most practicable to irrigate by taking water from the large streams and conducting it to its destination through large ditches or tapping the smaller and feeting.

The Montana Society of Civil Engineers is taking an active interest in the subject of the government survey for irrigation, and will probably recommend to Gov. White the issuance to county officers of a list of questions similar to those which have been addressed by the governor of the desired effect, and Flynn invited.

But he was not mistaken. Standing on the platform of the car and a large crowd gathered around him, Chiaro assumed a dramatic air and attitude, and said to the crowd. "Gentlemen, I appeal to you as American citizens to see that I am not arrested." The doctor being "one of the boys" gained sympathy from the crowd, but it was useless. The officer threatened to arrest anyone who interfered. This had the platform of the car and a large crowd gathered around him, Chiaro assumed a dramatic air and attitude, and said to the crowd. In commenting upon the foregoing list of queries the Salt Lake Tribune said: "Citizens should help gather this data and all other data bearing upon the question of water supply and irrigation, for compilation by the judges. The subject is most important, and the committee that is coming here will be composed of engineers of the geological survey and some of the foremost members of the United States senate. The deceased was well known here, having conducted the now Broadwater springs for a number of years. A few months ago he sustained severe internal injuries by falling from a house and was confined to the hospital a long time. Y. It is same injuries had some effect in bringing him to his untimely end, which will be mourned by a host of friends. For some time past the deceased had resided at Elliston, where he conducted a general store. His funeral will take place to-day.

HARRIS. The ONE-PRICE Clo ST. LOUIS BLOCK,

You are probably aware the advent of warm weather given a great impetus to ness-not that we were is but we do say that trade sl the effect of Old Sol bean upon it because a week ago trade seemed to know but thing, and that was that ought to go to Harris' and a suit, but it was horses' to learn from them what t wanted. They were irresol hesitating between a fur c and a linen duster, but now change comes o'er," etc.-t know what they want and for it. It is "a cheap (ch first) good summer suit," they know where to get it.

Our trade the past month h been something incredible. never have had particular occ sion to join the "Kicker Club," but-our business h increased to such an exte that we feel we owe an oblition to our patrons for the more than liberal patronage and hereby acknowledge it. We sometimes wonder wi gives occasion for people to r mark, "Why. Harris, you

store is the only one in tow that seems to be doing any bus iness,27 We might tell then with some degree of truth that the reason therefor lay in the fact that we work harder for trade, we give greater induce ments to trade and show a bet ter selected stock than any house in Helena or the territory Now, one of the special inducements we offer is our line of medium priced suits. man of ordinary intelligence is aware that it is not a feat worthy of mention to sell low priced goods at low prices, but it is a point worthy of consider ation to sell good, durable articles, and at low prices. It is the tricksters' favorite game to cut in price, parade the fact with loud noise and a flourish of trumpets, and at the same time conceal the fact that he is ing the result of our popular priced suits have marked goods to similar prices, but not matched them in quality. We will show them a trick worth just a few of those Ten Dollar Suits left, some sixty three in all. Now, as a matter of fact they will be gone by the end of the week, so anyone wanting tnem had better pile in as soon as the announcement is made, or they will all be gone.
